"David Harum," the play taken from Wescott's book, is now in its third year. Its success has been one of the most talked about things in the theatrical world and it promises to be another "Rip Van Winkle." David Harum will be seen at the Barre opera house Oct. 4.

a There will be many unique features in connection with the Plantation Supper October 5, given by the ladies of the Church of the Good Shepherd. Charming colored waitresses will serve you and you will surely think you are "Under Southern Skies." Mr. A. W. Allen and Mr. W. H. Pitkin as colored head-waitres will render you matchless service.

Reports of the very big success of David Harum" continue to come and at "David Harum" continue to come and at day if you want a fine piano cheap. Mc"this time it does seem as if the comedy Kannon Bros., 45 Church street, Burlingtaken from Westcott's book was going to prove to be another "Rip Van Winkle" regarding its lasting qualities. The play is shortly to be presented in this city and the announcement will undoubtedly be received with feelings of pleasure by many who, having read the book, will like to see the scenes it so cleverly describes, acted in life.

increase of flesh, strength and vigor. This weakness, emaclation and lack of vitality simply means that certain substances, which go to make up the blood and nerves, have become exhausted; and to renew flesh, muscle and strength, these substances must be restored. Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food is composed of the same kind of substances that are lacking in 7 Pearl Street, - Barre, Vermont. the impoverished blood and nerves when in poor health, and abundant in the rich juices that flow through the system when in perfect health. If peo-ple would take this food occasionally when in health to keep their blood and nerves in good condition, many spells of sickness and wasting disease would be prevented. It makes sick people well, puts solid flesh and muscle on thin people, gives strength to weak people, restores the lost vitality to nervous people, imparts the tint of health to pale and sallow people, adds years to life and puts life into years. Price 50 cents. Book free. Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Drown.
